Swahili to English translation

Jambo bwana - Hello mister.
 Habari gani? - How are you?
 Mzuri sana - very fine.
 Wageni mwakaribishwa - Visitors are welcome
 Kenya yetu - in our country (Kenya)

 Kenya nchi nzuri - a beautiful country
 Sote nchi ya maajabu - all a land of wonders
 Nchi yenye amani - a peaceful country

Pronunciation

Vowels are pure as in Italian:
 a - ah
 e - eh
 i - ee
 o - oh
 u - oo

Other letters are as in English with 2 exceptions:
 J as in joy except "maajabu" - mah-yah-boo
 RI is pronounced "dee" in "mwakaribishwa,"
 "habarigani," and "mzungisana"

Performance notes

This arrangement offers the opportunity, after the notes are learned, to move to a different key—one that best showcases the strengths of the ensemble.

The written Djembe percussion parts are to be used simply as a guide. Percussionists may be encouraged to get creative and use various African percussion instruments to enhance the overall style and interpretation of the piece. Appropriate instruments include various types and sizes of drums: Djembe, Conga, Dunun, Bugarabu, Ngoma, and gourd drums. African bells, rattles, and shakers may also be used.

Whatever the choice of instrumentation, it should not be allowed to cover the voices; rather, it should tastefully provide its rhythmic impact as an underlay to the singers. As in African musical tradition, percussion fills are appropriate during times when the voices are resting.
