The angel Gabriel down from heaven came,
His wings as drifted snow, his eyes as flame.
"All hail," said he, "Thou lovely maiden Mary,
Most highly favoured lady." Gloria!

"For known a blessed Mother thou shalt be,
All generations laud and honour thee,
Thy Son shall be Emmanuel, by seers foretold.
Most highly favoured lady." Gloria!

Then gentle Mary meekly bowed her head,
"To me be as it pleaseth God," she said,
"My soul shall laud and magnify His Holy name."
Most highly favoured lady. Gloria!

Of her, Emmanuel, the Christ was born
In Bethlehem, all on a Christmas morn,
And Christian folk throughout the world will ever say:
Most highly favoured lady." Gloria!

*Translation of the Basque

A young maiden was worshipping the Lord of Creation
when an angel came down from the heavens to speak with her.

Note from the composer

I see this carol as a scene: Mary sits in the dark when light gently breaks in the room as the angel Gabriel reveals himself and slowly unfolds his wings. (The opening phrase is meant to convey this.) The rest of the piece is essentially a quiet waltz of profound, inner joy between the angel and the maiden.

I used the Basque in the first verse for two reasons: first, it adds to the mysterious quality of the music; second, this was the original language of the carol. The Basque has certain qualities in the combinations of consonants and vowels that the English translation doesn't offer.

Gabriel's Message was commissioned by The Singers—Minnesota Choral Artists and received its premiere on December 5, 2005.

Thanks to Argitxu Camus of the Center for Basque Studies at the University of Nevada, Reno.
